

Accuracy falls with cohort size; the margin over chance grows whiskers = min-max across cohort draws, NOT a confidence interval: at small K a cohort can be easy or hard, and that range is the deployment question labels above the fusion line give its margin over chance